

Information Gold Mine: Innovative Uses of Evaluation (Paperback)

By Paul W Mattessich, Shelly Hendricks, Ross VeLure Roholt

Fieldstone Alliance, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Don't Shelve that Evaluation! Use the Findings More Creatively and Effectively Traditional use of evaluation--for improving service quality--is well known. But are you using the data to full advantage? Information Gold Mine highlights 14 nonprofits that have used program evaluation in exciting, creative ways. You'll find five examples of using evaluation for improving services, five examples of influencing policy, and four examples of marketing a program. Written for non-technicians--service delivery practitioners, program designers, and managers--Information Gold Mine provides real examples and contains the ideas, suggestions, and actual words of your nonprofit colleagues. These are people who understand the realities of work in nonprofit and government service delivery organizations. You'll learn about specific changes organizations made based on evaluation findings; barriers they faced and how they overcame them; and practical advice including their most important learning and what would they have done differently. Plus, you'll find 15 key questions the authors advise you to answer if you want to improve services, 10 questions to answer if you want to influence policy and legislation, and 7 questions for marketing...
