Development-Guideline of eBusiness considering international accounting and taxation aspects

By Paul-Jürgen Sparwasser

GRIN Verlag Jul 2007, 2007. Taschenbuch. Book Condition: Neu. 211x146x7 mm. This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Seminar paper from the year 2001 in the subject Business economics - Accounting and Taxes, printed single-sided, grade: Satisfactory, University of Cologne, 8 entries in the bibliography, language: English, abstract: The volatile electronic business is characterized by a seamless, borderless, and timeless marketplace. In this connection the internet is accelerating a number of trends that are laying the foundation for a new global economy, in which production and consumption become more mobile, dynamic, intangible, and multinational. The shift from a manufacturing-based economy to a service-based economy, working with etools and the dominance of information technology industry, knowledge management and intangibles in ebusinesses will influence a revision of the current traditional national-specific principles of accounting and taxation considering worldwide trade and commerce (death of distance). The consequence of that globalization effects will be a challenge to the philosophy of traditional accounting and taxation and promote an acceleration of global harmonization of the principles of accounting and taxation. The new business development and creation of innovative business planes in ebusinesses have to consider those certain properties and...
