

Moon Flyers: A Family Memoir: Coping with Mental Illness (Paperback)

By Barbara V Paper

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Moon Flyers tells the story of a family's struggle with mental illness, a generally misunderstood medical condition. A father and daughter cope with severe depression in two distinct ways, with two dramatically different outcomes. Information and insights from different experiences give direction to others who similarly suffer and hope to the people who love them. Throughout Moon Flyers are narrative descriptions of stressful family conflicts. Other chapters illustrate that it is possible to manage and survive by finding humor in life's challenges and expressing emotions with creativity. Each section begins with a quote to relate to the following narrative, for example, That's the thing about depression: The fog is like a cage without a key, or Children are a great comfort in your old age and they help you reach it faster, too. The author describes how she and her daughter survived a trip titled, Murphy's Law, an observation that anything that can go wrong, will go wrong. Another humorous episode happened in a hospital. Explanations of terms, such as self-medicating and bipolar disorder, along...
