Reviews

It is one of my personal favorite publications. Indeed, it actually performs, still an amazing and interesting literature. It has been printed in an exceptionally easy way which is merely soon after I finished reading this book where it really altered me, changed the way I believe.

Abingdon Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 320 pages. Dimensions: 8.6in. x 5.7in. x 0.9in. His name is Ashish. His name is Blessing. The boy is my blessing. Virat and Latha named their son Ashish, for he is the light and glory of their world. Yet a simple drink of water from the wrong cup changes them forever. Virat, Latha, and Ashish are Untouchables in 1905 India, members of a caste who must never contaminate the world of the other, higher, castes. When Ashish is in desperate need of a doctor, Virat risks everything to save his son and ventures into the dangerous realm of the high caste. There, the strength of a father's love, the power of a young British nurse, and the faith of a child change the lives around them. Kay Strom has penned a high-powered suspense novel using her extensive overseas research and her experiences in third world countries. A master in creating the unexpected. - DiAnn Mills, Christy Award winner and author of Pursuit of Justice, The Fire in Ember, and Under a Desert Sky Author Kay Marshall Strom, in her professional yet heart-rending style, has penned another story that will open the eyes and change the lives of her readers. This is an exquisitely written tale of hope and faith in the midst of difficulties born out of superstition and bondage. I am already anxiously awaiting the sequel! - Kathi Macias, award-winning author of more than 30 books, including the popular Extreme Devotion series Do not miss this historical, inspirational novel by Kay Marshall Strom. It will touch your heart. - FreshFiction. com This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
