Thorough guideline! Its this type of good read. It is really simplistic but shocks from the 50 percent from the publication. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Packard for the brilliant, interesting and instructive address delivered in the American Institute Hall, at the opening of the Sixty-first Exhibition of the American Institute, and that Mr. Packard be requested to furnish a copy of his address for publication. Resolved: That the above resolution be spread in full upon the Minutes of the Board, and that a copy be forwarded to Professor Packard. John W. Chambers, Secretary. 101 East 23rd street, New York. October 21, 1892. Gentlemen: Your characterization of my address is not as I would word it; but as you have the courage to print the address, I ought not to complain. Whoever reads it can put his own estimate upon it. Your request flatters me, and I gladly comply with it. I only wish the address was better, but as that would require another person to prepare it, I accept the situation and thank you most kindly.
