She was the youngest of the family with five older brothers. Graduating from Tobique Valley Highschool in Plaster Rock, New Brunswick in the year 1978, Pauline went on to become an entrepreneur establishing a restaurant, T and J s Breakfast and Subs, while raising two small children. She presently works at Garderie Rachel s Daycare which she helped her youngest daughter establish. A writer at heart, Pauline fondly remembers, as a child, sitting high in the limbs of a lofty old Crabapple tree planted on the homestead by her Grandfather, where she would write poetry and short stories. She continues to write today with a passion. Through the years, Pauline s spirituality naturally merged with her love of Nature. Presently an avid wildcrafter, she occasionally gives classes on gathering foods and medicines from nature to benefit body, mind and spirit. Having seen her share of death in loved ones and friends, Pauline understands life as a connectedness of all things, and she would like to offer this hope to her readers who are sharing this wonderful journey on Earth. 6X9 128 pages.
