Blazevox Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 222 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Poetry. "By investigating the minutiae of life the stuff that anchors us, a stone and its echo, paradoxes constructed by language Ruth Danon investigates nothing short of Thanatos and Eros. The journey of the LIMITLESS TINY BOAT is fierce and fearless. Watch out! These poems expand and contract breathe as they are read. A substantial achievement." This book is a beautiful reckoning, an astute tallying, and a profound journey through the dark and bright corridors that make up a life." She is one of the most honest and affecting poets on the current scene, a writer more than willing to take deep emotional risks, bringing the reader close to the flame. She says she is lucky knowing / that everything tends / to a particular moment in her latest collection. I suspect that much of her work as a poet has tended toward the moments gathered in LIMITLESS TINY BOAT. It's important work, and Danon takes us far beyond the fringes of thought and feeling." Jay Parini "Like any passageway...
