On a late-night television show a popular playwright was asked if making lots of money concerned him. The studio audience went dead silent when he answered, No. what does concern me is the fear of dying. Most of us, like that studio audience, are too uncomfortable with death to think clearly about our own eternal future. But the fact is that one day you and I will die. We can live in fear of the unknown or we can take a moment to consider what the Bible says about eternity. it may be the most important moment of your life. First, let me ask you a simple question that will help you face the issue: If you died tonight, where would you spend eternity? Most people, when asked that question, say something like. I ve led a pretty good life. I hope I d go to Heaven. But they re not really sure. Why are they willing to risk their future on wishful thinking when the Bible tells how they can know for sure where they will go after death? Perhaps because it s so humbling to face the fact that we are sinners in need of salvation. The Bible says that all fall short of God s glory (Romans 3:23). In our natural state none of us is pure enough to enter Heaven; we need God s forgiveness before we can come before Him. Entrance into Heaven is not based on what we have done, but on what God has done for us through Jesus Christ. The Bible says that He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not...
