Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1845 edition. Excerpt: . . . that we may both follow the example of His patience, and also may be made partakers of His resurrection; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. This day begins the most awfully solemn and mournfully affecting week of the whole year, the great, the holy Passion-week. It is called the great week, says St. Chrysostom, not because it consists of longer days, or more in number than other weeks, but because at this time great things were wrought for us by our Lord. For, in this week, the ancient tyranny of the devil was dissolved (destroyed), death was extinguished, the strong man was bound, his goods were spoiled, sin was abolished, the curse was destroyed, paradise was opened, heaven placed within our reach; the God of peace made peace between things in heaven and things on earth; therefore it is called the great week. And he adds, in speaking of our Lords entry into Jerusalem on this day, from which it had the name of Palm-sunday, As the Jews went forth to meet Christ, when He had raised Lazarus from the dead, so now, not one city, but all the world go forth to meet Him, not with palmbranches in their hands, but with alms-deeds, humanity, virtue, tears, prayers, fastings, watchings, and all kinds of piety, which they offer to Christ their Lord. And as the Church, so also the State, after it became Christian, added its sanction (approval) to the solemn observation...
