Teaching for Thinking (Paperback)

By Robert J. Sternberg, Louise Spear-Swerling

American Psychological Association, United States, 1996. Paperback. Book Condition: New. New.. 279 x 218 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. What constitutes good thinking ? How do analytical, practical and creative thinkers differ? Which teaching strategies promote thinking to learn as well as learning to think? Can asking the right kinds of questions enhance student thinking? In what ways do tests prevent creative and insightful problem solving? Why do some good thinkers fail? How can teachers prepare for the challenges of teaching for thinking? The authors consider these issues and others as they explore the thinking classroom. Illustrated with classroom vignettes and inventive teaching activities, this volume is supported by an empirically validated and classroom tested psychological theory that lays out three ways of thinking and the cognitive processes that underlie them. This inclusive model of student - and teacher - thinking can be used in the context of everyday teaching with any subject matter and with students of any age. The importance of dialogue and the fluidity of teacher and learner roles are crucial for all settings. Teacher readers can learn how to recognise and foster the good thinking that their students will need in order to achieve...
